

ISBS 2026

World Congress

CALL FOR PAPERS

June 10-12, 2026
Lyon, France

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF ABSTRACTS

The deadline for receipt of the Abstracts by the Conference Scientific Committee is 30th Jan, 2026.

ABSTRACT THEMES

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM OF THE CONFERENCE

An abstract may be submitted under one of the following themes:

- Skin imaging
- New imaging technologies (e.g. LF-OCT)
- Artificial intelligence
- Neonatal and infant skin
- Classical methods including barrier function and hydration
- Sensitive skin
- Diverse skin types
- Delivery of active ingredients
- Miscellaneous

SUBMISSIONS

Acceptance of the papers from the Conference Scientific Committee will occur by 31st Mar, 2026.

Please email abstracts to:
abtsracts@isbskin.org

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Title of the paper: The title should be concise and describe in a general way the content of the paper and should coincide with the title of the approved abstract.
- Authors: Surname, First Name and initial of the second name should be indicated. Presenting author should be underlined.
- Affiliations: Each author should be listed with one or more institutions. Please identify each institution with a number and include city & state/province.
- Key words: Use 3-5 key words which may allow adequate allocation of the paper.
- Text: Text of abstract is in Arial 10 point font. The total abstract should be between 300 and 500 words. The text should be divided into:
 - Introduction: In which the background for the research, the purposes and objectives be must described.
 - Methodology: This part must include experimental materials, employed methods, instruments and applied statistical methodologies.
 - Results: This section should include the main results
 - Discussion and Conclusions: This paragraph should contain a discussion and the conclusions of the research.
- Text maximum: 500 words

More Information about the conference at:
www.isbskin.org